

Application Engineer-TruMark		2007-10-18
Company	TRUMPF: Farmington, CT
Your position	This position is responsible for the application trials for customers and complex case studies for high demanding applications (projects with customers.) You will be responsible for onsite support for customers and to generate tool sales (samples and reports.) Information will need to be gathered through various means: reports from the internet, magazines and shows. In addition, you will be responsible to maintain the TruMark lab.
Are you	Knowledge of laser technology preferred. Strong communication skills required (oral and written), as the position works directly with customers and distributors. Strong computer skills required, including, but not limited to Microsoft Office. Experience with CAD software a plus. B.S preferred in Mechanical Engineering, Material Science or Laser Technology.
Interested?	Then send your detailed application with supporting documents to the following address:
	TRUMPF Inc Human Resources 111 Hyde Road Farmington, CT 06032 Fax: (860) 255-6428 or send an e-mail to: humanresources@us.trumpf.com	 